

VALENTINE GIFT IDEAS

Forget flowers, sweets and candy hearts...that's so 1984.

This Valentine's Day, think outside of the chocolate box and give these creative gift ideas to your special someone.

By Kimberly Fisher

For The Movie Buff

What's better than the gift of unlimited movies? A cozy night and buttered popcorn to go along with the evening, that's what. Homebodies all over will rejoice when you give your honey an entertaining reason to stay home with the reasonably priced, easy access Netflix. Go to Netflix.com for more information and quick purchase.

PINK KITTIE

For The Sex Kitten

Give the ultra sexy gift of romance and passion from the Pink Kitty Boutique. Sexy lingerie, shoes, lotions, DVDs and toys can all be yours with a stop at the unique little boutique.

For The Travel Junkie

Make your favorite jet setters next hotel room comfy and cozy with the Jetsetera Spa Travel Candle Set. In a compact travel set with 2 stylish silver tins, wake up with the "energize" scent, and fall asleep to hints of lavender with the "relax" scent. Both candles can also be used as a luxurious body lotion. To order, www.Jetsetera.net.

For The Female Fashionista

Nothing says love in California...like the gift of a designer handbag. Head to Fashion Island to pick up her favorite luxury from places like Louis Vuitton, Gucci and Prada.

For The Techie

Give the gift of the holy grail of cellular phone connections, with the newly released Verizon iPhone. Download hundreds of cool applications, especially the "Creative Romantic Ideas", "Kiss", "Lovetricity" or "LoveLive" for additional V-day points.

For The Foodie

Tourista Chef Carmen Garcia calls Los Angeles and Phoenix her homes, and has a healthy, romantic dinner menu to charm your special someone on February 14th. Check out her recipes to tantalize the taste buds. www.carmemgarcia.onsugar.com